Who is Annette?

At a young age, even before she played an instrument, Annette decided to become a street musician. And so it is. She has been a streetmusician from the age of 15. From this age she traveled with backpack and guitar in Europe.

She can be found from Dublin to Amsterdam to Paris and the south of France with her guitar and a case full of original songs, nowadays with bassist Mario by her side. They are real LIVE musicians who also can be booked in cafés, restaurants or at houseconcerts and festivals.

Keep the Streets Alive!

Biography

At the age of 15 Annette bought her first guitar and three weeks later she sang 'House of the Rising Sun' under the Rijksmuseum (Amsterdam), and that was the beginning of her career in music. Annette studied schoolmusic and saxophone at the Conservatorium Groningen, the Netherlands. She played in several bands and toured Europe and the USA. Currently she lives in Amsterdam.

Together with Mario Kaspers on bass she forms a duo that stands out in the songwriter scene of Amsterdam and surroundings. Mario originally played in rock/metalbands but plays his parts in the songs of Annette melodious and functional. Guitar, vocals and bass layered in the voices. Jazzy, funky. Numerous topics are covered in the lyrics. Warming up our souls with sounds similar to Joni Mitchel, Suzanne Vega and Katie Melua.
